The tonsorial artists will next Monday cross bats with the typographical mechanics in a game of base ball. No bets as yet have been announced owing nal ate supper at the Midland last to the Cubbison anti-gambling law.

Changed Hands.

Daniel Gibbs and G. O. Combs have bought the Allen Bros., confectionary stock, the first door south of P. Martin's They are putting in more goods and will make a specialty of summer drinks, ice cream, etc.

A Fine Entertainment.

Amorita given by the Calhoun Opera Company, was greeted with an overflowing house on Monday evening. The costumes were fine, the singing superb and all together was the fine-t operatic company ever in Hutchinson.

Reserved Seats.

The seats for the Musical Jubilee are going at a great gait. Mr. Hoagland informes us that a great many more visitors will be here than last year and he advises our readers that they secure their seats before hand.

New Real Estate Firm.

Smith & Parks is the style of a new firm in this city. Their business is to bring buyers and sellers of real estate together. Mr. Parks is a new resident of our city, while Mr. Smith is known to our readers as Fay. Their office is on east Sherman street, near the Valley State bank.

The Band Concest.

The band boys erected their stand at the Midland corner last Saturday evening. The music, though, was cut short by a sprinkle of rain that began about the time the boys were getting their horns warmed up to business. The boys will be on hand Saturday evening again.

Church Sold.

The First Baptist church of this city was sold at the court house last Thursday to satisfy a claim of $5,000 by the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. This is only an other testimonial of the fact that a great wave of prosperity is just now sweeping over Kansas All hall to the redeemers.

Made 'em Git, You B et.

While Hutchinson has some drawbacks we have also some good features that few cities can boast of. One of them is we have a brave mayor and at least one brave councilman. Last Thursday noon, while the policemen were all enjoying their daily repast the mayor accompanied by Councilman Watson, unarmed and alone drove fifteen hungry men out of the city.

Single Tax Lecture.

Louis F. Post, of New York, delivered his lecture, "God's Two Gifts to Man." last Sunday afternoon to a small but appreciative audience, which would have been much larger but for the inclemency of the weather. Mr.Post was on his way east from a lecture tour in the west. To say that Mr. Post is a master of logic, of rhetoric, of ease and grace as well as master of his subject, is but a feeble statement of facts.

Our people will be pleased to learn that the great and only Remenpi and his famous concert company will appear in this city on the night of May 1. Remenyi has played the violin in all and carrier, will be held in the court the countries on the face of the globe, and is given up to be the finest performer upon the violin that ever entertained an audience in Kansas. The price has been reduced to 75 cents for all seats on the first floor, and there should not, and doubtless will not be a vacant seat in the house. Get your seats at the Opera House Book Store.

Single Tax.

About two hundred men, women and children assembled at the auditorthe lecture of Lewis F. Post on "God's Two Best Gifts to Man." Quite a number had gone there thinking it would be a religious address, coming as it did on Sunday afternoon and were considerably disgusted when it turned out to be a "single tax" lecture.

The above is as fair or truthful as on the streets. No one left the room during the lecture except Dad Quargan to make ready to go when the News egotist, Mr. Eccles began his sent Bible Normal, W. C.
